RE: Annual State Elks Golf Report

The State Golf committee would like to thank all who participated in the 2013 State Elks golf tourney held in Columbia, Mo. We would like to commend the host lodge #594 for a job well done and a great entertaining weekend had by all. The committee would especially like to thank Jerry Stone, our tournament director, and all of his committee's help at Columbia Lodge #594.

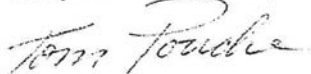

The State Golf Committee voted to keep the tournament at L.A. Nickell, and Lake of the Woods for the 2014 tournament. Both courses were in great shape.

We had a total of 226 teams entered this year. Final results were mailed to each participating lodge, along with the skins results. There were eight places paid in each of eight flights, for a total of $12,000. There were five skins paid out for a total of $2,400. The 2013 State Champions are Andy Buchanan & Tony Polus from Farmington #1765 with a score of 126. (64 at Lake of the Woods) and (62 at L.A. Nickell) Congratulations Gentlemen.

Our next year's tournament will be held in Columbia on August 2nd and 3rd. Let's try to attend to make it a bigger, better, and successful event ever.

Entry's will be mailed to all lodges no later than Feb.1, 2014. Please get your entry in early for preferred times. Thank you, and looking forward to next year.

Respectfully yours,
